

Need for Counting

Class: Class 7 • Difficulty: Beginner • Time: 15 mins

Q1 • KNOWLEDGE • MCQ

Why did ancient humans need to count?

To keep track of days and seasons

To count money

To count food and animals

To count buildings

To count people

Q2 • KNOWLEDGE • MCQ

What was the importance of counting in everyday life for ancient humans?

To keep track of days and seasons

To count money

To predict the onset of seasons

To count food and animals

To count buildings

Q3 • KNOWLEDGE • MCQ

What were the names of numbers in ancient India?

eka, dasha, shata, sahasra, aayuta eka, hundred, thousand, ten thousand, hundred thousand eka, dasha, shata, sahasra, aayuta, laksha eka, dasha, shata, sahasra, aayuta, laksha, arab eka, dasha, shata, sahasra, aayuta, laksha, arab, kharab

Q4 • KNOWLEDGE • MCQ

Why did ancient humans need to list names for numbers?

To keep track of days and seasons

To count money

To know and predict when important events would occur

To count food and animals

To count buildings

Q5 • KNOWLEDGE • MCQ

What was the highest number listed by ancient Indians?

100

1000

1012

10000

100000

Answer Key

Q1: To count food and animals

Q2: To predict the onset of seasons

Q3: eka, dasha, shata, sahasra, aayuta, laksha

Q4: To know and predict when important events would occur

Q5: 1012